REPORT:

A program of one day on "HOW TO BECOME SUPER ACHIEVER" was conducted by Mr. Narasimha Makkilineni initiated by career cell. The program was received well and had a wonderful response.

If you achieve your goals, you are an achiever. If you don't achieve your goals you are not an achiever. This is a simple, binary way to think about achievement. To achieve means to reach, attain, accomplish. To be an achiever you must give your goals sufficient attention to reach, attain, or accomplish them. The difference between an achiever and non-achiever is largely a matter of attention. Non-achievers give their goals little attention, if they bother to set goals at all. You need be an achiever.
